Water Too High to Permit of Operation of Boats on February 13—Lockmaster Makes Report—February a "Cold" Month

In spite of the fact that February was a short month and in spite of the fact that at least once high water entirely stopped navigation, the February coal records were high at Lock No. 4 furnishing a true gauge of the conditions in the river coal business along the Monongahela. The total shipments of coal for the month down stream were 17,308,000 bushels. This makes the coal record for the first two months of the year 35,776 bushels and gives a start in the year of a sort that if followed will make this about the best coal year in history.

The report of Lockmaster Swaney at Lock No. 4 is as follows: Down stream—Locks 355, steamers 291, boats, barges and flats 1,281, coal 17,308,000 bushels; up stream—locks 358, steamers 298, boats, barges and flats 1,321, coal 14,000 bushels. Just once during the month, this being February 13, was the river flooded until navigation was stopped. The waters went to 31.7 feet on the lock at this time.

February was the coldest February since 1914 and with that one exception the coldest since 1899. The average temperature, R. A. Roberts of the government boat yards at North Charleroi finds was 21 degrees.

MINE WORKERS AGREE ON CUT

Concessions Are Made in Effort to Arrange New Wage Contract

NEW PRICES ROCK BOTTOM

The United Mine Workers of America, who are endeavoring to negotiate a new wage contract for the soft coal fields of Western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, Tuesday made their first material concession, offering to scale down their 10 per cent per ton increase for miners to approximately 6 per cent net on the mine run basis. In the western Pennsylvania territory, however, the net advance now asked by the miners amounts to about 12 per cent, as in that field the miners insist upon first raising the mine run rate to the Ohio basic price and then adding 6 per cent.

The miners said meetings of the joint sub-committee of employers and employees that the new figures they have presented are rock bottom prices and will not be further reduced.

CRESCENT MINERS AWAITING DECISION

Word From National Executive Committee in Regard to Contentions Expected—Both Sides Said to be Ready for Work

Miners of the Crescent mine of the Pittsburgh Coal company are anxiously awaiting word of the decision of the international executive board in regard to the strike now in progress there over questions of whether a new or an old local shall reign. Upon this word may hinge the final outcome of the strike. Since December the mine has been the center of contentions between members of the old local and organizers of the new, and it reached its second climax last week. Now after several days' idleness both sides are said to be ready to go back to work. This afternoon a meeting is being held at Daysytown and many of the miners are anticipating something definite to follow.

WANT PERFECT TITLE FOR CHURCH PROPERTY

First Presbyterian Congregation at California Starts Movement in That Direction—Deed Appears to Be Lost.

In order to clear up the title to its property the congregation of the First Presbyterian church of California, formerly the First Cumberland Presbyterian church of that place, has filed a petition for proof of a lost deed. The defendants are heirs of Joshua Baker and subpoenas have been directed to them residing within the state and notice by publication to all others. The matter will be heard the first Monday of April.

The property now occupied by the church was purchased on April 3, 1898. It is on Fourth street, fronting 50 feet and extending back 150 feet. It was purchased from the heirs of Joshua Baker and deed given for the same but the deed was never recorded and is now believed to be lost. This has left a serious defect in the chain of title to the property.

Diligent search has been made for a year for the deed by personal investigation, correspondence and advertisement, but the deed has not been found. Since the purchase of the lots the congregation has erected a valuable house of worship and secured payment by giving a mortgage. This mortgage is due and it is set forth that the congregation is being harassed by the mortgagees with threats of foreclosure and it must soon succumb unless the title to the property is cleared and the congregation enabled to borrow money thereon. The imperfect conditions of the title now hinders them.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA GIVES GOOD PROGRAM

Charleroi Organization Appears in Second Concert of Series at High School Auditorium—Orchestral Numbers Well Played.

What famed highly-paid symphony orchestras are to numerous cities, the Charleroi Symphony orchestra proved to Charleroi in its second concert of a series of three at the high school auditorium Tuesday night. A program of numbers of the highest class music, in which the compositions of the late Fidelis Zitterbart, the famous Pittsburgh composer were featured was presented to a large and appreciative audience.

The opening number was "William Tell" overture, by Rossini. It was indeed well played and won an encore selection. For this the orchestra presented a neat and pleasing arrangement of Drorak's "Humoresque."

Hearty applause was won in the rendition "A Norse Child's Requiem," and "Anita's Dance" both by Zitterbart. One of the best rendered and most pleasing selections of the entire evening was that of "Lohengrin," Wagner, this including the famous wedding march. The last programmed orchestral piece was the grand selection "La Tosca" by Puccini. It was meritoriously given.

The soloist of the evening was Pierre DeBacker, son of Jean DeBacker, the conductor. Young Mr. DeBacker played three regularly programmed violin solos, "Legende," Wieniawski, "Indian Dance," Zitterbart and "Caprice Viennois" Kreisler. The audience responded with ringing applause to his efforts. Orchestral accompaniment was played to the first of his selections. For the others, Miss May Barth, the well known local pianist and accompanist furnished accompaniment winning applause for her artistic performance.

The orchestra pleased beyond a doubt. There was a good balance in most of the numbers and the ensemble effects on the whole were eminently pleasing.

bride and groom. After the wedding a reception was tendered in their honor. It was brief and the couple left on a late evening train for Uniontown where they will spend their honeymoon. Upon their return they will take up their residence in Charleroi, Mr. Edwards being employed by the West Penn Electric company.

Two Engines Required for at Least Two Trains up and Down River

TRAFFIC IS EVER INCREASING

Passenger Trade Growing Heavier Than Ever Since Fairmont Line Was Opened—General Manager S. C. Long Makes General Inspection

Probably for the first time in history two locomotives were required to haul passenger trains on the Monongahela Division, P. R. R. Tuesday and it is reported they will be used regularly in the local service. The trains using them Tuesday were that up river due here at 3 o'clock and down river due here at 5:03.

It appears that the schedules needed bolstering up with the continued increase of traffic, the style of specially made engines being unable with their present power to pick up quickly in getting away from stations. How long the double engine method will be used is a question. Engines now hauling Monongahela valley passenger trains are comparatively light. Not long ago a dry steam chest was installed on most of them to increase their power, but with the opening of the new line to Fairmont it is said even this may prove insufficient. The result may be that larger locomotives will be put on the line.

Today General Manager S. C. Long made his annual trip of inspection over the Monongahela division lines. He did not stop at many points but the condition of the tracks and the condition of the stations were noted. Accompanying him were several officers from the eastern divisions as well as a number from Pittsburgh.

STEEL ORDERS RUNNING HIGH

Crest of Boom Not Yet Reached—Orders Valued at Total of $240,000,000

THIS VALLEY IS BENEFITED

Orders aggregating 4,000,000 tons, valued at $240,000,000, have been placed in the steel market since January 1 and, the crest of the boom has not yet been reached according to statements made Tuesday by leaders in the industry.

The Monongahela valley with its large steel plants is sharing largely in the prosperity.

The orders placed in the last two months indicate profits to the mills of $80,000,000, half of which is expected to flow into the coffers of the United States Steel Corporation. Even this tremendous tide of prosperity is declared, will be surpassed before the close of the year. It is pointed out that prices have advanced $5 and $10 since New Year's Day and further advances are looked for in the near future, which will eclipse the record of 1899 and 1900.

Reports from different parts of the country reveal strong efforts to improve and extend existing plants with the prosperity that the productive capacity of the United States will have been increased by 1917 at the rate of 4,000,000 tons annually. Apart from the direct effects of the European war the industry has been given a tremendous impetus by the orders placed for equipment by the land and water transportation companies which are almost swamped by an unprecedented volume of traffic.

It is estimated that since January 1, contracts for railroad equipment and for steamships calling for 1,900,000 tons of steel at a cost of $128,000,000 for construction have been placed. The orders booked by the car shops alone are valued at $49,500,000 and contracts involving a total of $19,500,000.

WESTMINSTER GUILD MEETS AT THE WASHINGTON AVENUE CHURCH

Discussion of Interesting Program Led by Miss Elma Collins—Number Of Visitors Are Present.

The West Minister Guild of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church met Tuesday evening in the Sunday school room of the church. The president, Miss Elizabeth Elliott was in charge. A change was made in the by-laws of the society to make it conform to the changed conditions of times. The "Social Life of the Indian" was the topic of the evening and the discussion was led by Miss Elma Collins, assisted by Miss Louise Breuer and Miss Marguerite Whitlatch. Miss Gwen Treasurer contributed a violin solo. An address was given by Miss Nellie Pieper. A shower was planned for a member of the guild who was recently married. Plans were formulated for joining with the other guilds of the valley in sending a delegate to the Westminster guild convention to be held in Philadelphia soon. Several visitors were present and all enjoyed a social hour with the hostesses, Misses Bertha Planton, Marion Benedict and Bessie Johnson.

A SERIOUS PROPOSITION

Unless the Republicans in both branches of congress are able to re-organize President Wilson at the polls from the war-time Democrats, that body the avowed plans and purposes of the Washington administration seem certain of being thwarted. Changing his plans and policies by President Wilson is not relished by the Democrats in congress and many of them have refused to change with him and just in the most critical moment in his official life the President finds himself abandoned by a threatening faction of his party.

The revolting Democrats contend that while the President has changed his mind on important foreign policies and on the proposed tariff commission they are of their own mind still, and refuse to be shifted about at the changing will of the administration.

In the dilemma President Wilson has called to his rescue Republican leaders such as Senator Lodge, Senator Penrose and others who are standing behind him in a firm determination to best serve the entire country, but the Democrats are largely in the majority in both branches of congress and W. J. Bryan is constantly in touch with the congressional rebels. Whether the peace-at-any-price enthusiasts will be able to control is yet to be determined.

Prominent Republicans rescuing a Democratic President from a rebellious faction of his own party is a sight not often seen. And a nation in charge of Democrats who are unable to govern themselves is an exceedingly serious proposition.

Getting down to brass tacks there's no system like the cash system of buying to save money and a dollar saved on a bill of goods is the same thing as an extra dollar earned on payday. But the average buyer, careless and extravagant, finds it utterly impossible to comprehend this, and grows unceasingly and inconsistently about the high cost of living. Cash buying reduces bookkeeping charges, it prevents the operations of dead-beats—a consequential item by the way—and places in the hands of merchants the means for prompt satisfaction of their accounts, in turn reducing bookkeeping charges and excess interest on time purchases. Delivery charges too enter heavily into the cost of living. When a man has to be employed to carry packages to your door you pay his salary and if he has to drive a motor truck you pay for the truck and the gasoline. The consumer foots the bill for all these extras and don't forget it. While we allow the system of wasteful extravagance to continue, aiding its development as we have in the past, we have no kick coming on the high cost of living. We are to blame and facts are stubborn things.

The Washington county plan to employ a credit agent to stop credit abuses "listens good" as the comic supplements used to read. In the long run the merchants will save far more than the salary of the man hired to give either all or a part of his time to the work. There are varieties of ways for getting around the payment of a bill and there are numerous persons who use all varieties. To prevent them all is the object and aim of the proposed association. If a man has flimflammed a merchant in Washington he will have difficulty in flimflaming a merchant in Charleroi or if he beat a grocer at Fredericktown out of a ten-dollar bill of goods he will be up against it attempting to buy on tick at McDonald. Cooperation is needed among merchants and business men and this is a movement to obtain it.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

It happened in a crowded street car one evening recently. A gallant passenger shifted his bundles, arose pretended to take off his hat and saved an equally if not more burdened female standee:

"Won't you take my seat, madam?" "Oh, thank you so much," cried the lady. "I'll take the seat with pleasure, but I don't want you to stand up."

"Gee, lady," he grinned, blushing. "I'd like to accommodate you in both ways, but what would the people think if you was to sit on my lap?"

PUDDINGS FOR COLD WEATHER

Seasonable Desserts That Will Call Forth the Appreciation of Guests and the Family.

Tapioca Pudding.—Soak one cupful of pearl tapioca over night in one quart of water. In the morning pare and core six tart apples or peaches. Stew them slightly and lay in a deep baking dish. Add sugar (and a little lemon juice if apples are used) to the tapioca and pour it over the fruit. Bake until the tapioca becomes like jelly and eat either hot or cold with or without sugar and cream.

Chocolate Pudding.—Heat a quart of milk with four level tablespoonsful of grated chocolate, and three level tablespoonsful of cornstarch dissolved in a little cold milk, a pinch of salt, and sweeten to taste. When cooked (sugar, flavor with vanilla, and when sufficiently cool pour into a glass dish. Serve very cold with whipped cream piled on top.

Prune Pudding.—One pound stewed prunes, whites of four eggs, one cupful of sugar. Drain the juice from the prunes, remove the stones and chop. Beat the eggs stiff, and the sugar gradually, then stir in the chopped prunes. Bake 20 minutes. Serve cold with whipped cream flavored with vanilla.

Rice Pudding.—Mix four cupfuls of milk, one-third cupful rice, one-half cupful seeded raisins, one-third cupful sugar and one-half teaspoonful salt. It is necessary to stir occasionally to prevent rice and raisins from settling to bottom of dish. If raisins are not used some flavoring should be added.

MANY USES FOR SARDINES

Suggestions for Dishes That Will Be Appreciated by Those Fond of the Delicacy.

Combined with tomatoes, sardines make delicious sandwiches. Pound a dozen of them to a paste with a little butter, squeeze some lemon juice over them and season with cayenne pepper. Butter thin slices of bread and cover with the mixture. On this place some thin slices of tomato, add pepper and salt, and cover with a slice of bread.

A pimento-sardine salad is both unusual and toothsome. Remove the bones from the sardines, chop and mix with an equal quantity each of chopped pimentos and celery and one-third the quantity each of olives and nut meats. Chill and serve in a border of jellyed tomato with a rich mayonnaise dressing.

Stuffed sardines are tasty for informal lunches and suppers, and are easily prepared. Select the boneless variety which are put up in oil, open and fill with Parmesan cheese, press together and serve with sliced lemon.

Grilled sardines are good. Wash a can of large sardines and heat in a tablespoonful of butter. Pour over them a white sauce seasoned with a table sauce, lemon and parsley. Serve on toast.

Lemon Pop.

Half cake yeast, two pounds granulated sugar, two ounces ginger root, eight quarts boiling water, two ounces cream of tartar, juice of seven lemons.

Place ginger root (crushed) in pot, add sugar and boiling water, lemon juice and cream of tartar. Let stand until lukewarm, then add yeast dissolved in half cupful water; stir well. Cover and let stand eight hours in a warm room; strain through flannel bag and bottle. Set bottles in a cool place and put on ice as required for use.

This is a most refreshing summer beverage, as a thirst quencher nothing is superior.

Tomato Soup (Belgian Fashion).

Boil together six medium potatoes, a celery, two leeks, two carrots and a pound of fresh tomatoes, with pepper, salt and a leaf of bay. Pass all through the sieve. Fry two or three chopped onions in some butter and add the soup to them. Boil up again for 20 minutes before serving. If you have no fresh tomatoes, the tinned ones can be used, removing the skin at the same time that you add the fried onions.

Creamed Sardines.

Melt four tablespoonsful of butter, add one-fourth cupful of soft, stale bread crumbs and one cupful of thin cream, and bring to the boiling point. Add one box of sardines, two hard-boiled eggs finely chopped; one-half teaspoonful of salt and one-eighth teaspoonful each of pepper and paprika. Again bring to the boiling point, and serve on finger-shaped pieces of toast. Garnish with toast points.

Tongue and Egg Salad.

Cut cold tongue in thin slices, then cut again into pieces about one inch square; arrange a layer of tongue on fresh lettuce leaves, and on the tongue place a layer of hard-boiled eggs sliced thin; then another layer of tongue, and cover all with a good mayonnaise. Decorate the dish with slices of cold beets and parsley.

Baked Onions With Cheese.

Peel and cut in one-half-inch slices, large white onions. Parboil in salted water, drain, and arrange in a buttered baking dish with bits of butter, and bake until soft, then sprinkle with salt, pepper and a layer of grated cheese. Return to the oven long enough to melt the cheese.

Lemon in Your Coffee.

A slice of lemon in iced coffee adds as much to its tastiness as it does to that of iced tea, where it is more commonly used.

Mrs. Hep's Sayings.

"Men is jes' like babies in a lotta ways," observed Mrs. Jonathan Hep as she collected cigar ashes. "an you don't never want to punish 'em before you finds out whether they is actin' up becuz they's mad or jes' becuz they is hungry or some'n is hurtin' em."—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Grandmother's Apple Butter.

Boil one gallon of fresh sweet cider down to one-half its original quantity. Then fill the kettle with sliced sweet apples and let them simmer gently, but steadily all day. Until reduced to about one-half their original bulk. Stir frequently with a wooden spoon or paddle, to prevent their scorching. If not boiled down sufficiently the first day, let cook longer on the second. Pack away in stone or wooden jars.

Some housekeepers prefer to use half sour apples. In this case, sweeten to taste when the apples begin to break. The butter is better, however, if left with the natural sweetness of the apples.

Preserved Marrow.

To each pound of marrow add one pound lump sugar, two ounces of ginger to every five pounds, the rind and juice of three lemons.

Cut the marrow in squares three-quarters of an inch, sprinkle very lightly over with salt, let it stand for an hour, drain the salt off, next add a little sugar and stand for the night. Next boil the ginger and peel in sirup, then add the sugar and boil a little longer. Then put in the marrow and add the lemon juice last.

Citron Heart Cakes.

Beat half a pound of butter to a cream, take six eggs, beat the whites to a froth, and the yolks with half a pound of sifted flour, beat these well together, add a wineglassful of brandy and quarter of a pound of citron cut in thin slips, bake in small heart-shaped tins or a square tin pan, rubbed over with a bit of sponge dipped in melted butter; put the mixture in half an inch deep, bake 15 or 20 minutes in a quick oven.

Egg and Sardine Salad.

Slice one head of celery and hard-boiled eggs and place in salad bowl. Mash yolks of the eggs, four sardines, salt and pepper together and use enough cream to form a thick paste. Thin with vinegar. Mix French dressing on the celery and white of eggs and over that pour the cream dressing.

Orange Dessert.

Select the best seedless oranges, cut crosswise, and extract the pulp with an orange spoon. Whip pure sweet cream to a dry froth and line a glass dish with ladyfingers or light sponge cake and heap in the oranges and whipped cream high in the center.

Sponge Cake.

Three eggs, well beaten, one cupful sugar, one cupful of flour, 1½ teaspoonfuls baking powder, one teaspoonful lemon flavoring, two tablespoonfuls boiling water, beaten in last.

Salt and Gasoline.

In washing any delicate material in gasoline, if salt is added to the liquid, there will be no stain left at the edges of the cleaned parts.

MRS. MAY'S LETTER to WOMEN

More Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Relieves Suffering.

Chicago, Ill. — I suffered from a bad case of female troubles.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and I took about six bottles. It fixed me up all right. The common symptoms of such a condition — pain when walking, irritation, bearing down pains and backache, nervousness and disordered digestion — soon passed away. I look much better now than I did before, and I recommend the Compound every time for female troubles, as it did for me all it is claimed to do. You have my permission to publish this letter. Mrs. J. May, 3548 S. Lincoln St., Chicago, Ill.

If you have any of the symptoms mentioned in Mrs. May's letter, remember what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for her, and try it yourself. It is a good old-fashioned medicine, made from roots and herbs, and it has helped countless numbers of women.

If you need special advice, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Skin Comfort for Sick People

No Bed Sores by use of

Here is proof and nurse's letter

"For fifteen years in my work as a nurse I have used Sykes' Comfort Powder in the sick room with splendid results. My mother was confined to bed for three years, but by the use of this powder never had a bed sore. In all my work for skin irritation or soreness I insist upon the use of Sykes' Comfort Powder."—Mrs. T. A. Bacon, Nurse, Lawrence, Mass.

Not a plain talcum powder, but a highly medicated preparation unequalled for nursing and sickroom uses, to heal and prevent chafing, itching, scalding, eczema, infants' scaldhead, prickly heat, rashes, hives, bed-sores, and irritation caused by eruptive diseases and bandages.

Used after bathing children it keeps the skin healthy and free from soreness.

TO TAKE THE PLACE OF SOUP

Some Appetizers Which Will Prove Acceptable if It Should Be Only for a Change.

Nowadays in many households an appetizer or an entree is served for dinner instead of soup. A fruit appetizer is often tempting. Grapefruit in any form, in its own shell, garnished with a maraschino cherry, or cut in dice, and served in cups or mixed with a little orange or pineapple, is always good. Diced pineapple, with sugar and a little lemon juice sprinkled over it, is also good.

Then there are the various sorts of canapés—tiny strips of toast spread with some fruit tbit. Any of the fish pastes can be used and garnished with sliced hard-boiled egg or sliced olives. Hashed leftover meat can be moistened with a little mayonnaise and spread on a strip of hot buttered toast, or meat minced and heated in a little cream or stock. Use olives or hard-boiled eggs or a little minced parsley for garnish.

Various vegetables can be used for canapés. A slice of ripe tomato, topped by a spoonful of mayonnaise and placed on a round of buttered toast of the same size, is delicious. A long strip of toast an inch wide can have thin slices of cucumber lapped one over the other its entire length, each dotted with a bit of mayonnaise. Or a few diced beets moistened with melted butter, very hot, can be piled in neat little mounds on rounds of buttered toast and garnished with minced hard-boiled egg.

GRAHAM BREAD WORTH WHILE

Directions for Making Appetizing and Wholesome Food That Should Be More Widely Used.

One cake yeast, one cupful milk scalded and cooled, four tablespoonfuls light brown sugar or molasses, one cupful lukewarm water, two tablespoonfuls lard or butter, melted, four cupfuls graham flour, one cupful sifted white flour, one teaspoonful salt.

Dissolve yeast and sugar, or molasses, in lukewarm liquid. Add lard or butter, then flour gradually, or enough to make a dough that can be handled and the salt. Knead thoroughly, being sure to keep dough soft. Cover and set aside in a warm place to rise for about two hours.

When double in bulk, turn out on kneading board, mold into loaves and place in well-greased pans, cover and set to rise again—about one hour, or until light. Bake one hour in a slower oven than for white bread.

If wanted for over night, use one-half cake of yeast and an extra half-teaspoonful salt.

Driven to It.

A man who tries to attend strictly to his own business gets to be regarded as so eccentric that he is forced to do a little meddling in self-defense.

I overheard two little girls on the street talking. One asked the other why she didn't wear light dresses like hers to school, to which the child answered: "Do you think my mother is lonesome for a wash?"—Chicago Tribune.

"THE BATTLE CRY OF PEACE" BOOKED FOR PRESENTATION

Famous Film With Lesson of Preparedness to be Shown at the Coyle Theatre Two Days.

Manager R. S. Coyle of the Coyle theatre has booked the biggest film attraction ever shown here for presentation on two days this month, March 23 and 24. This is "The Battle Cry of Peace," now being featured at the Pitt theatre in Pittsburgh.

"The Battle Cry of Peace," which is founded on Hudson Maxim's book, "Defenseless America," drives home the idea that "power spells peace" with a will. The first part of the film shows the destruction of New York city by a hostile fleet, whose 15-inch guns topple building after building without being in range of the United States shore batteries.

Thousands of persons are pictured running madly about as the bombardment continues, both from the sea and air. A portion of the United States fleet, much smaller than the invaders, is seen in combat off the coast. One of the finest pictures shown is the sinking of the two battleships, which have been driven in close to shore by the foreign fleet. Then comes the landing of the troops of Emanon (no name, backwards) and what they do to the inhabitants. Men are torn from their homes and shot by a machine gun in front of a wall a short distance away. The invaders are shown attacking women and girls, choking them when they resist.

The music for the production will be played by Nirella's orchestra of 15 pieces from Pittsburgh.

THOMPSON COMPLAINS THAT ASSESSMENTS OF COAL ARE TOO HIGH

Notice of exception to the assessed valuation of coal lands owned in Washington county has been filed by J. V. Thompson with the Washington county commissioners. A hearing on the appeal has been set for Monday March 13, at which time many interesting facts regarding coal values will be established.

Washington county assessments as compared with Greene county valuations are high due to some extent to the many public improvements made in the former county, including the construction of a new court house a few years back.

Mr. Thompson and his associates of Uniontown are the largest individual holders of lands in the county. They have over 13,000 acres of coal which at the 1915 assessment was rated at $1,760,950.

Deed Recorded.
